

GLOBAL PHENOMENA & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Eds. J.-S. Bergé, S. Harnay, U. Mayrhofer, L. Obadia

Table of contents

Foreword by François Crépeau (Mcgill U. - United Nations Special Rapporteur on the Human Rights of Migrants)

Introduction by Jean-Sylvestre Bergé (Université de Lyon, Institut Universitaire de France)

Chapter 1 – Political Science

1.1. Frédéric Ramel (Sciences Po Paris) - War and Globalization: Understanding the Linkages

Chapter 2 – Management

2.1. Pervez Ghauri (University of Birmingham): Multinational Enterprises and Sustainable Development in Emerging Markets

2.2. Valérie Fossats-Vasselin and Ulrike Mayrhofer (Université de Lyon): Multinational Enterprises and the Challenges of Globalization

Chapter 3 – Economics

3.1. Andrea Maneschi (Vanderbilt University): Globalization and Climate Change

3.2. Sophie Harnay (Université de Lorraine): Explaining the production and dissemination of global corporate governance standards: A law and economics approach to corporate governance codes as a global law-making technology

Chapter 4 – Anthropology

4.1. Ana Lúcia Pastore Schritzmeyer (Universidade de São Paulo): Human Rights and their Extra-legal Circulations: some Anthropological Reflections

4.2. Lionel Obadia (Université de Lyon): What is 'Global' for Anthropology? A Focus on Circulation, between 'Flows' and 'Systems'

Chapter 5 – Law

5.1. Jean-Louis Halpérin (École Normale Supérieure Paris, Institut Universitaire de France): The Circulation of Legal Phenomena: Past Lessons and Recent Issues

5.2. Jean-Sylvestre Bergé (Université de Lyon, Institut Universitaire de France): Border Crossing Phenomena and the Law: Which Method?