

SEMINAR

VIRTUAL CURRENCIES: THE CHALLENGES FOR THE STATE

Venue: Uniceub - Asa Norte, Building n° 1 auditorium

Access: arrival order.

9:30-11:30

SEPTEMBER 19, 2017

Speakers

MARIA Edelvacy MARINHO E
GUSTAVO FERREIRA RIBEIRO
Commentators

JEAN-SYLVESTRE BERGÉ
Border Crossing
Phenomenon and the Law:
a theoretical vision

WÉLLITON FERNANDES
Crypto-coins:
descentralization of the economy and imminent
challenges in the public security area.

DANIEL GERSTEN REISS Virtual currencies: to regulate or to not regulate?

Daniel Gersten Reiss holds a P.H.D in economics from Universidade de Brasília (UNB). He works at the Brazilian Central Bank, and his current activities focuses in the virtual currencies theme.

Gustavo Ferreira Ribeiro is a Professor in the Masters and Doctorate Degree Program at Uniceub, lawyer and holds a Bachelor's degree in computer science.

Jean-Sylvestre Bergé is a Law Professor at the University of Lyon (Jean Moulin - Lyon 3), and a member of the International, European and Comparative Law Research Centre.

Maria Edelvacy Marinho is a Law Professor at Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie and a lawyer with specialization in the area of international law and intellectual property.

Wélliton Fernandes is an Intelligence Officer at the Brazilian Intelligence Agency (Agência Brasileira de Inteligência) and a specialist in public security.